Secretary Taft repeated yesterday to the Senate Committee on the Philip-pines what he had previously said to the House Committee on Insular Affairs in behalf of the bill authorizing the issue of bonds for improvement pur-poses by municipalities in the islands. The bill also provides for the con-struction of railroads under a guaranty by the United States of 4½ per cent in-

The Secretary was closely questioned by Senators on the railroad proposition.

He said that the guaranty by the He said that the guaranty by the United States would be an inducement for the introduction of capital into the Philippines, and that, under the restrictions imposed and through the creation of a sinking fund, the Government would be fully safeguarded, and reimbursed in due time. Without that guaranty private capital might build certain parts of the proposed lines in sections, in places where it was manifest that the returns would be immediate, but it was his opinion that it could not be induced to undertake the construction of the entire system as planned.

No Easter Joy Today At Korean Legation

Baby to Have Been Baptized in Church of Covenant Is Dead---Family Goes to Glenwood Cemetery Instead.

Sorrow reighs at the Korean legation today instead of the joy with which Easter Sunday had been anticipated. This was the day on which Mr. and Mrs. Sun Yun Kim were to visit the Church of the Covenant, on Connec wat Ayenne there to solemnize the happy.

But there will be none of the joyous Easter celebrations today at the legation. Instead, a sorrowful little band will wend its way to Glenwood Cemetery, there to lay a flower on a new made grave. Far away in a strange land, deprived of human sympathy save only such as her husband and the immediate members of the household can give her, her plight is, indeed, an unhappy one.
